We extend a sincere welcome to all who worship with us today. It is the prayer of Pastor Joe and the leadership that you may know the blessing of the Lord and grow in grace and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ, our Savior.

Benediction

May I never get over the fact that God saved a wretched sinner like me. May I never get over the fact that He allowed me to see another day. May I never get over the fact that He's patient with me, that He's long-suffering with me, and that in me dwells nothing, nothing that can satisfy Him. May I never get over being broken over my sin. May I never, ever become complacent. May I never, ever stop realizing the incredible distance between me and my Jesus. Because that's the only way I appreciate the distance He traveled to make me His child.

Pastor's Vacation

Pastor Joe will be on vacation beginning tomorrow September 30th through next Sunday the 6th. If needs arise during that time, please contact a member of the

Temporary Worship Location

Reminder that next week we will be holding our worship service at The Georgetown Centre, 526 E Bruceston Rd, Pleasant Hills. The hotel will be renovating their ballrooms and we will be unable to hold service during that time.
